

"The Silk Stocking Boys" display one of their earliest pieces of horse-drawn equipment. The nickname was tagged on the Allendale department at its first parade, in Ridgewood on July 4, 1910, when they made their initial public appearance in the white and black outfits. P