

^{E 44}
AMBULANCE UNIT

HOLDS ELECTION

Jan - 7th 1941

Names Bijou President
As Wehner Declines

————— AC-21

Charles Bijou was elected president of the Allendale Ambulance Corps last night in the Ambulance Corps headquarters after the retiring president Carl Wehner declined to accept the nomination.

Other officers elected at last night's meeting were Nelson White, vice-president; Henry Kahse, secretary; Jacob Kaplan, secretary, and Paul O'Connor, captain. Kenneth Booth, Paul O'Connor, and F. Archibald Farrell were named as delegates to the New Jersey State First Aid Council.

A committee was also named to make arrangements for the entertainment of the New Jersey First Aid Council, Third District meeting to be held at the Allendale Firehouse January 21. Members of the committee are Kenneth Booth, John Winters, and George Price.