

Kenneth Booth of West Maple Street, a First Aid instructor for Allendale Ambulance Corps, put his knowledge to good use Sunday. He was in Port Jervis where he is employed as an Erie Railroad conductor, when a man had both legs severed. Mr. Booth put tourniquets on both legs, using handkerchiefs and pencils, and had the patient in the hospital within 15 minutes. He is president of Allendale Fire Department. E44 - AC-23