Many Renominated For Election

Allendale Fire Department which tomorrow night will hold its annual card party last week nominated its staff of officers for the December departmental election. Kenneth Booth was nominated for president; Howard Elschner, vice-president; George Wehner Jr., treasurer; Alwyn Grossmann, secretary; George Megnin, chief; Charles Bijou, assistant chief; Edwin Grossman, captain; Alwyn Grossman, lieutenant; Harold Osborne, 3-year term, representative to the Relief Association; Frank Megnin, Wilbur Vanderbeek, Walter Rumsey, trustees, 1-year, to the Relief Association.

The importance of tomorrow evening's card party was stressed at the meeting as this is the only means that the department has of raising funds for extra-departmental activities.

War Stamps

Table prizes for the card party will be war stamps. The principal door award will be $5 in war stamps. Awards Chairman William Dewsnap promised others.

Play will start at 8:30 at the Firehall. Those who wish may make up tables at home and call at the Firehall for prizes and refreshments to which they are entitled. The firemen have promised ample in cider, cake and coffee during this yearly function.

It was decided to once again send Christmas presents to members in the armed service. To date the Fire Department has thirteen members in the service, Albert Bijou being the most recent addition. By the next meeting two more men will have joined the Navy, Norman Travis and John Conlon.

A donation of five dollars was made to the Holiday Observers' Honor Roll fund.

The Relief Association asked Secretary Grossmann to seek authorization from the State Association to invest $500 of its funds in a War Bond. Meetings hereafter will be on the Wednesday preceding the regular department meeting.

Arthur D. Follon made application for associate membership.
