ALLENDALE

Baarck, Booth New Marshalls

Werner Maarck of Dale avenue, who is Allendale's building superintendent, and Kenneth M. Booth of West Maple street, president of the Fire Department, were appointed as new marshalls at Thursday night's meeting of the Allendale Borough Council.

A balance for the borough of $20,190.49 after paying off all outstanding bills was reported by John Lothian, chairman of the finance committee. He also submitted the report of David Colburn, tax collector, which listed all outstanding taxes as of March 1, 1943.

Carl Wehner, chairman of the water committee, announced that water had been shut off for four delinquent residents, who had promptly paid up the bill and the service charge for turning on the meter. He urged residents to cooperate in paying water bills promptly.

The annual report of the Holiday Observers was read, including recommendations for the 1943 membership.

J. George Christopher, public safety commissioner, announced that Detective Edward Shaheen of the Ridgewood Police Barracks will talk on wartime police problems at a meeting of the marshalls on Thursday night.

The budget passed its final reading and adoption.

A talk on "Starting Your Victory Garden" by Mrs. E. V. Romaine of Ho-Ho-Kus, vice chairman of the garden department for the State Federation of Woman's Clubs, was the feature of the meeting yesterday afternoon of the Allendale Woman's Club. She advised as to the use of community gardens, value of fertilizers, lime and the best seeds. Following her talk, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Berdan, County Game Demonstration Agent, showed several pictures of garden and gardening procedure.
