GALA EVENING PLANNED FOR JUNE 17; CLASS NIGHT

On Tuesday, June 17, the Senior Class of Ramsey High School will lay before its guests a gala show featuring star performers from all over the United States. "Travelogue Across the U. S." is the theme with M.C. Bob McCausland taking the senior class and the audience on a tour of our own country. The senior class are traveling in style on the observation car of a special magic railroad.

The great variety of entertainment will be a cross-section of the lives and good times of the American people; in the high schools, colleges, on Indian reservations, in our large cities such as New York, New Orleans, Chicago, and San Francisco, at a good old Country Fair, and various other spots. Although the complete schedule of railroad stops is not definite as yet, many outstanding performers of the senior class are scheduled to appear. Some of the acts which will be auditioned next week are: The Vagabonds, the Birth of the Blues, a puppet show, advertisements in song and dance, a baseball pantomime, many solos, duets, trios, and quartets, an Indian pantomime, and various dances.

Ann Blanchard and Dave Merney were chosen as co-chairmen of class night by Mr. Henry VanDyke producer-advisor. Arlene Stegen and Connie are decoration committee chairmen; other committees include lighting and sound and clean-up.

A wonderful trip is promised to everyone who wishes to ride

AUTOMOTIVE CLASS

The boys you have seen busily simonizing cars recently, are the industrial students of Mr. Wilding's Automotive class. They simonize cars each year to make a little money, so if you have a car and want a good polishing job done on it, just hand it over to the boys — they'll do the rest for a dollar apiece.

DEPARTMENT HEADS

For the first time our teaching departments will be headed by chairmen, appointed for one year. This was recently decided by the Board of Education which has long felt that such a move would do much toward improving the courses and aiding the administration.

The chairmen who will assume their duties in September are as follows: Miss C. Mowerson, Business; Miss A. Lutz, English; Mrs. G. Stuart, Guidance; Mr. R. Murray, Health and Physical Education; Mr. L. Wilding, Industrial Arts; Miss E. Freische, Languages; Mr. J. Mitchell, Mathematics; Mr. L. Hook, Science; and Mr. H. VanDyke, Social Science.

the rails for an evening. Come out and see the seniors in their last and best class project.

Southern Theme Highlights Prom

"Soft lights, sweet music and you in my arms"—a lush plantation garden with a rustic bridge just made for picture-taking led from the plantation mansion to the levee where the showboat had just docked, a perfect setting for the junior prom "Beneath Southern Skies." From behind the scrolled railings of the showboat Vic Fraysee's Orchestra accompanied Janice Durren, the new vocalist. The boosters, handbills; bottom balls; mint juleps; bales of cotton, and dogwood blossoms, which were fastened on a real tree. The imaginative decorations and the hard work of the members of the class under the chairmanship of Dee Burke were largely responsible for the success of "Beneath Southern Skies."

The committee chairmen Audrey Dickson, Letty Lou Eisenhauer, Joan Gilbert, Peggy Halsted, Joanne Huffman, Edward Johnson, Jody Mott, Marge Norman, George Rough, and Joan Wortman are deeply indebted to Miss Willie Aronne, Miss Eleanor Smith, Miss Ruth Steck, and Mr. David Larkin of the faculty for their help.

The junior class also wishes to thank Dr. Miller of Miller's Pharmacy, the Ramsey Chamber of Commerce, and the management of the Ramsey Five and Ten for their generous support.

new "school on the hill", and headed for their respective futures.

On Thursday, June nineteenth another graduation will take place. Under a star-studded sky, approximately two-hundred students will receive their diplomas and they too, will have their futures shaped for them. Some will attend colleges, or further their educations in business school; others will begin working immediately after graduation and still others will join the armed services—each to a profession of his or her choosing.

According to Mr. Moore, the graduation program this year will take place in the following manner: The graduation exercises will be held in front of the school, at 8:30 p.m., on Thursday June nineteenth. If the weather is poor, the program will take place the following evening — weather permitting, outdoors, as planned — and in case of rain—in the auditorium.

The speakers from the graduating class will be Nancy Kenyon, Edward Bogert, Tom Fugate, and Louise Gersch. Their topics will concern the class motto: "A man is like a tree and his reputation like its shadow; the shadow is what we think of him, but the tree is the real thing."

RAMSEY, N. J. WEDNESDAY, JUNE 11, 1952

What's Being Done For Us?

This reporter has just had an interview with Mr. "Joe" Passmann, our ever-busy chief custodian, and he told me what is going to be done in R.H.S. next year.
First of all, the first floor hall will be sound proofed so that the noises of the hall will no longer annoy our "hard-working" students when they are deep in thought.
Second, the Domestic Science room will be reconditioned, and more up-to-date equipment will be installed.
When a fellow marries a girl from R.H.S., she's sure to be a good cook!
The football field will be moved 65 feet north of its present position; and the baseball diamond will be moved into the southwest corner.
Every desk in R.H.S. will be refinished. This, I think, is one of the most important jobs that our staff is undertaking.
Have you ever noticed yourselves or someone sitting next to, in front of, or behind you digging their sharp pencils or compass points into a nice deep rut in a desk?
Then, next day, you go in all ready for a test, etc. Everything is going just fine, all your answers are correct so far, then suddenly it happens! — your pencil hits one of those convenient "Ruts" that you yourself dug.
A large rip in your paper appears, the point of your pencil cracks and flies across the room; you lose your temper; the teacher loses hers. You end up in the office and have failed the text, all because the day before you dug a "Rut" in your desk.
Is it worth it? Come on kids, it's a lot easier to write on a smooth desk and much easier on the temper. Now, that the desks will be done over, how about leaving them alone? If you must dig into something, bring a piece of wood to school with you. We also suggest that if you are caught "digging" the teacher may fine you $1.00.
The third floor girls' and boys' locker rooms, the wood shop and metal shop will be repainted.
Also, our long awaited tennis courts will be ready for use by September, and a nice, new lawn is going to surround them.
We don't want to preach in the last issue of the RAM, but our school staff is doing a very wonderful job giving us kids all the advantages we could possibly have. How about cooperating with them by letting up on the digging, scratching, and annoying little habits that only make work for other people as well as ourselves? Others are certainly trying to "MAKE RAMSEY BEST!" — are you?

Dear Editor:
Could someone please explain the reason for the two shifts? Since only half of the students and half of the teachers are here for first period, why not hold the eighth period classes during the first period or vice versa?
Some people believe that the shifts affect the lunch periods, but this isn't so. The only difference in lunches this year is that fifth period was lengthened.
Another explanation is that there isn't enough room to hold the student body. Well, everyone is here from second through seventh periods. Besides, Study Hall 101 isn't being used during first period.
I know that a lot of us would like to have a sensible explanation for having to wait 45 minutes for after school meetings, so please, someone let us know!

STUDENT COUNCIL

Daniel Clapp, a well known junior at R.H.S. will attend the National Convention of Student Councils at Evanston, Illinois. As Vice-president of the New Jersey Student Council, Dan will be one of the eleven representatives of this state.
The convention begins June 18. However Danny will leave by bus a few days earlier to visit Dick Bailey.
Dick Bailey is a graduate of Ramsey High and is now studying at Wheaton College. The two friends will attend the graduation exercises at Wheaton College.
During the convention, Dan will be the guest of an Evanston High School student at his home. This student will act as Dan's guide till the Convention commences on June 21.
Dan will participate in the discussion groups and will attend the problem clinics. There, various representatives will present the difficulties they are facing. The subjects will be open to discussion and it is hoped solutions will be reached.
There will also be a lighter side to the convention. The manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates will be a featured speaker. The representatives plan to attend a White Sox game and also will enjoy the social activities planned by the convention from the evenings.
The Ramsey Student Council has contributed $10 to Dan for expenses. The state council has supplied Dan with $20 which will cover his expenses at Evanston.
Dan, the newly elected president of our student council, will obtain much valuable information which will help next year. We wish you luck for the best student Council ever.

GLEE CLUB CONCERT

The Spring Festival given by the Blondettes and the Glee Club this year was different from all the past concerts for beside the beautiful singing there were stage settings and dances.
The theme of the festival was "I Hear America Singing."
One of the selections was "Over The Rainbow" to which Phyllis Hayden danced her own original interpretation.
Elaine Gini and Joel VanWynen did a tango while the Chorus sang, "Orchids in the Moonlight."
A Hungarian Gypsy dance was well performed by Christel Zeoliner. All the songs and dances were accompanied by the piano and the organ which were played by Mrs. Robert Fugate Miss Doris Parvin and several students.
The highlight of the evening was the girls interpretation of "Put On Your Old Gray Bonnet." The old lady and man were Tom Fugate and Gretchen Heide. The beautiful antique Surrey used in this scene was generously donated by Mr. and Mrs. Chester Smeltzer of Ramsey.
The audience reaction seemed to show that this was one of the best concerts given. Credit for this fine concert belongs to Miss Marjorie Brundage and the girls participating.

Dear Editor:
At the beginning of this school year many students returned to school with the expectation of learning how to play tennis on the new tennis courts. Others who already knew how to play tennis were all ready to start off the season by playing on a tennis team. But when they got to school on the first day and the last day is but a few days away and still there are no tennis courts, and so we were wondering just what happened to the tennis courts.
Sincerely,
A group of Tennis Players

IDENTIFIES FORMULA

During a chemistry quiz "Doc" asked Jerry Craças to identify a formula he had just placed on the board.
"Er-ah, I have it on the tip of my tongue," he faltered.
"In that case you had better spit it out," answered Doc. "It's nitric acid."

It was during the days of coffee rationing.

BETTY ANN DAVIS VOTED MISS R. H. S. OF 1952

Oh, yes she's as pretty as the picture. Betty Ann Davis, Wyckoff's extra special contribution to Ramsey High, was tops in the Ram Poll for Miss R. H. S.
This poll is an annual affair whereby every R. H. S. student selects a senior girl he thinks is the best all around personality. This year the honor is bestowed upon Miss Davis. Shall we investigate and find out what makes her outstanding. O.K., let's go.
For the boys — golden blonde hair, deep blue eyes and a pretty eighteen year old of 5'4" sums her up. As for your chances fellows, her "ideal Man" should be athletic, have blonde hair plus blue eyes and easy on the eyes. For you brunettes she stated there are exceptions.

Betty Ann Davis

Her many school activities include the student council, Bible Club, Tri-Y, Commercial Club, Cheerleading and the Ram. During the summer, Betty loves to loaf at the beach and she hopes to obtain a job at the beach this summer. She intends to get a job after graduation.

It's quite easy to please her. Just take her swimming in the summer, ice-skating in the winter, and dancing all year round. She gets special delights from week-ends, Christmas Eve, football games, open houses, going barefoot and all foods except spinach. She loves rings, (I'm suspicious). Betty's in seventh heaven when she sips a cherry float, and knits argyles. As Vaughan Monroe and Peggy Lee sound off with "Tel Me Why" and "Unforgettable." Around Mrs. Barillo and P.A.D. class are fine.
Her dislikes are fewer. People who think she is stuck-up are on the black list. That goes for impolite boys also. The third is something we don't have much around here — subways.

At home with her two sisters and one brother she practices the piano. She has been taking lessons for six years. Betty has had no pet animals, she prefers people. Betty Ann has enjoyed the past four years at Ramsey but she can't wait for graduation.

Her ambition is to fly to Bermuda and to own a light blue Cadillac convertible. Ramsey High School would like to wish you good luck. We have shown our confidence in you and shall look forward to the day you park your Cadillac outside and come in to visit us.

TAKES VACATION TO REGAIN COURAGE

Not long ago a business man, tired of the daily struggle for existence, decided to take a long vacation in the West in an effort to regain courage to go forward.
The train upon which the man was traveling was unavoidably delayed while passing through one of the desert states near the southern border. Looking over the vast expanses of desert waste-land, the business man was at a loss as to how he should spend his time. Finally he decided to take a walk.

At first the man was depressed by the seared, uninhabitable desert. Then, looking at the ground, he noticed a few scattered green plants. Of what use are these "ants here? The man thought.

Coming to another solitary plant, the man looked at it carefully. Facing the sun, and defiant to the elements, was a tiny pink flower!

Suddenly the man felt new courage and strength within him. He thought of the famous lines, "Full many a flower is born to bloom unseen, and waste its sweetness on the desert air," and the man knew it was untrue. The man realized for the time that everyone and everything has a place in this world, whether it be to become a great leader of men, or to be a tiny flower that brings joy to the heart of a lonely desert wanderer.

CELEBRATES 2ND BIRTHDAY

Mr. Van Dyke's "Bobby" celebrated his second birthday on Easter Sunday. He had a hard time trying to blow out the candles, but finally made it. The children sipped and nibbled, but most of the soda and cake was consumed by the adults. Games were played to the riotous amusement of the grown-ups. The party broke up when the guest of honor disappeared, and was finally discovered reading Modern Concepts of Paleontology.

"Bye now!"

SO LONG MISS CONDON

The resignation of Mary M. Condon from the Ramsey High School faculty was announced by the Board of Education at the beginning of May. Miss Condon will be missed, as she was a member of the faculty for 31 years.

After a six weeks absence because of illness in the latter part of December, Miss Condon was forced to send in her resignation. She had been unable to attend classes since early in March. Miss Condon was a graduate of Bay Pech Institute and New York University.

Many of Ramsey's successful business men and women have prospered from Miss Condon's business training.

At the present, Miss Condon is living in Brookline, Mass. The Ram extends to her, Miss Condon, best wishes for the future. We hope she will always have health and happiness.

TOM FUGATE RECEIVES AWARD

Although scholarship is not often stressed, a good example of the ability and intelligence in Ramsey High is Tom Fugate, senior from Ramsey, who was recently awarded a certificate of merit because of his high score in the National Honor Society Scholarship contest.

Tom, besides being an honor student, is very active in school affairs. At present he is the President of the Spanish Club, and President of the Camera Club. He performed in both our Junior and Senior plays. Next September, Tom will study engineering at the University of Maryland.

Tom was one of 210 students who were top-ranking in a general Aptitude Test given throughout the U. S. to 8,435 students in 1,803 high schools. Good luck, Tom, towards a promising career.

New Brunswick—The first contingent of the 2,000 young people from Marshall Plan countries, who will study and work in the United States for one year arrived at Rutgers University in New Brunswick, Sunday, June 1. These work-study students are sponsored by the Mutual Security Agency in order to give potential leaders of labor and management aboard first hand knowledge of American industrial procedure and democratic way of living.

The Rutgers contingent will be composed of 45 young men from Denmark, Norway, Switzerland, Austria, France, and Italy. The group is coming by air and will be met by Mutual Security Agency officials in New York, who will bring the students to New Brunswick.

While in America the students will work at such jobs as are available for the development of their own skills and training in factories where workers are organized by local and international organized unions. They will attend classes at the co-operating University in English, American Civilization, and Labor Management Relations.

of "1952". Who else would fit this description but Ralph Maniscalco, who hails from the town of Saddle River.

If any of you girls are over lucky enough to date this modest fellow your evening would probably be something like this. Your supper would be breaded veal cutlets, succotash, mashed potatoes, lasagne (sounds good) and blueberry pie A La Mode, for desert. You would go dancing for sure and if there was a juke box around, Louie Armstrong records be played over and over.

Ralph Maniscalco

But girls, don't be a dead head or talk too much without any point in the conversation, since those are some of his pet peeves. If you are 5'4", peppy, sociable and attractive you'll surely rate on Ralph's list.

Ralph has participated in many activities during his four years at high school. Some of them are the Student council of which he was president in his senior year, secretary of the Hi-Y, president of the Honor Society, Biology Club, Chemistry Club, and the Spanish I and II Clubs. (After such a record we're glad he didn't stay in Bogota where he once lived.) Basketball, track and football are Ralph's favorite sports. But his real love is throwing a discus. Playing the accordion, riding the waves at the shore and listening to Freddy Martin's band is what one is bound to find him doing in his leisure hours.

Just ask him about his brother who goes to the University of Pennsylvania and he'll talk your ear off.

Well, it looks as if "Old Man Time" is finally catching up with us and June is here at last!

For the past six weeks, the "Party Line" seems to have been pretty dead, but the few parties that have been held, and are coming, appear to be pretty successful.

Cray Gildersleeve, the popular Editor-in-Chief of the Nugget, held a Senior Open-House after the Cheerleading contest here at R.H.S. Via the "grapevine", we hear that it was a lot of fun, and the kids even persuaded Cray to do some of his famous "magic tricks."

The Hi-Y meeting that was held quite recently with both old and new members attending, ended with a bang according to some of the members, when the boys went swimming at some lake in that far-away section of our country known as Saddle River. Have fun kids?

In celebration of the coming Senior "Class Nite" which promises excellent entertainment (provided by the Class of '52) for all who attend, Jack De Korte is holding "After Class Nite" at the Joe Jefferson Club in Saddle River. Admittance to this party may only be obtained with one of the invitations that Jack had engraved

HAVE YOU MET THEM

Now that school will be out in a very few days, let's have a look at the many types, characters, and personalities we find in our school.

(1) Introducing Studious Sylvester. This little book-worm is never seen without his peepers digging deep in a book. Talking to him is the worst experience you could have.

(2) Now, into the spotlight come two of nature's little love birds—Musky Melvin 'n Matilda. You couldn't pry them apart unless you had a crowbar.

(3) Next in line is Gum-chewing Gus. This little animal walks around the hall without his chain; how he does it is quite a question. He is ten times worse than any cow that ever lived!

(4) Next in line is Sneezy Sneezy. This little fellow sneezes so much that he is almost as bad as with Sylvester. Of course his vocabulary is as limited as yours, but in-between counting his cavities as he chews, one or two words do manage to part with his "hobby" so he calmly sticks the gum under the seat for future use.

(5) Loud-mouthed Larry—he's our pride and joy. Proud when he's not around, and when he is, wishing to put "Joy" soap in his yapper. No loud-speakers are necessary when he's around; his raucous voice can be heard where ever you go.

(6) Of course, we must include Tight Thomas. This grubby little excuse for a human is usually found in dark corners so no one can bother him about anything. Ask him for help for any meager thing and you get a "NO" even before you finish. When a test is being given, he's all arms and his head is just about an inch from the paper to make sure you don't peek. But when he's stuck, his sly little eyes sure can get around.

(7) Next comes Diggin' Don. He's seen creeping down the hall, compass in hand ready for his next period class and an attack on his desk. He isn't satisfied just writing on the desk, he's got to chisel out the wood. His specialty is that long gouge down the middle of the desk. (8) Now, into the spotlight come two of nature's little love birds—Musky Melvin 'n Matilda. You couldn't pry them apart unless you had a crowbar. Hand in hand they float down the hall on their own private cloud. Blank eyes meet and drooling begins. For them, it's the end of the world when class begins. When the dismissal bell rings, he rushes to her class door and waits for her to hurry to him; then it starts all over again.

(9) Snoozy Sally—She thinks she's the cream of the crop, but somewhere along the line, she got sour. Her nose is so high that it sometimes gets scratched on the ceiling. Someday, somewhere, someone will cut her down to size.

(10) Sleepy Sam. This drowsy dreamer haunts the back of the class-room and sleeps with an occasional snore sneaking out. His main object in life is free pillows supplied with each desk, since he doesn't plan on leaving high school anyway.

(11) Copycat Charlie. "Sneak Thief" is his middle name. He quietly sneaks up behind you and gone are all your private answers. Wondering how your answers got around the class so fast, you spy him over your left shoulder.

(12) Humorous Herman—This so-called human being is a big joke—(pardon me)—joker. He enjoys taking your car apart or setting your clothes on fire. Throwing snakes is his specialty. Don't try it on him, though, he'll start crying and maybe throw a little fit usually equal to a hurricane.

(13) Glum Garry—This happy little soul thinks nothing of crying on Saturday night because he knows Monday is coming. He'd rather die than smile and usually does. Of course the plaster that is keeping his face straight may for the occasion. Sounds like a real promising evening, eh what?

Letty Lou Eisenhower will be hostess to the members of the Junior Class and their dates, before the Prom, while she is having a Punch Party at her home. Good luck, Letty.

Last, but by no means least, will be Betty Pregrod's open-house after graduation. Sounds like a pretty full week ahead for the Senior Class, doesn't it? Since this is the last issue for which I will be editing "Party Line", this operator would like to summarize some of the shindigs that have taken place in the past year.

The season really began with the Band's Farewell Party for Dawn Edgar at the home of Ann Staines, Ann's open-house parties have always been a success, and I don't think others will disagree with me.

Ellen Fors's open-house after one of our victorious football games proved to be another one of the social highlights of the season.

Dick Wallace's open-house after "Arsenic and Old Lace" Merri's Punch Party before the S-Senior Prom.

The New Year's Parties, P J Parties, Open-Houses, Punch Parties, and other recreational doings at R.H.S. have really been swell for the past year, and I'm sure that the Seniors will look back on them with many fond memories.

To those who have cooperated with me in writing this article—many thanks, So long, and...

Happy Vacation.

Linda Mowerson — Sometimes life gets boring, don't you think? Let's go back about 16 years to the little village of Allendale to see if life's more exciting there. Linda, exclaiming her vocal cords again. This brown haired, brown-eyed baby seems to "goo" and "gaga" the most for roast beef, blue, spinach, little boy babies with light hair and blue eyes who look like they might sometime be in the Navy, and the prettiest lacy clothes she can find.

In her spare moments between yowls, Loud-mouth Linda yells when the Giants win, or when her slaps needs changing. From the way she looks into people's eyes, sometimes concentrating, sometimes tenderly, it looks as if this "bundle of joy" might sometime be a psychologist or a nurse. Perhaps, just perhaps, she'll take a 3 yr. nursing course at Mountainside Hospital after which she'll emerge as a Registered Nurse. Who knows, she'll probably get married too.

Like most good babies Linda doesn't like rain or being stopped from talking but from that gleam in her eye, I think sometime she'll be hot-rod-ding in a jalopy. Maybe black?

Ever since her Daddy dropped that record on her head, Linda goes into ecstasy over Don Cornell's "I'll Walk Alone" or Jane Froman's "With a Song in My Heart." Very particular baby.

An interesting future is predicted for this energetic yowler as she certainly is active now. What do you think.

TIPS FOR TEENS

Step right up and read the following information for the present season. April showers and May flowers have bowed to the hot June sun, so now is the time to choose your summer wardrobe.

News in the fashion world includes the recent rain-dress. If it rains or if it shines, you are covered by this smart apparel which is just out in the market. With a straw pillbox hat and matching shoes, gloves and bag this ensemble may be in your closet.

As for colors, neutrals are up to date, but "least we forget" the brilliant summer hues. In voile, nylon, or light poplin, sleeveless and peck-a-hoo, dresses and blouses, are tops. Silk and Chantrelle suits dress you smartly for late afternoon, while for evening there is a new break Plain gowns with wide belts (with emphasis on wide) of various decorations put you at the head of the fashion.

Short jackets and toppers of wool or summer poodle cloth are featured, also—there are thin sweaters of various designs and colors. Whether horseshoe, V-shaped, or sweetheart, the plunging and high necklines are all worn this season. Scarfs may or may not be coupled with the horseshoe line, depends on what you prefer!!!

As always happy shopping and the best of fashion to you.

The Rams had an average season winning 5 and dropping 8. Highlights of the season were Ivan Ackerman's back to back no hitters.

"Big Ack" came up with the second no hitter of his high school career Tuesday afternoon, May 13, with a 2-0 whitewashing of the league leading Hawthorne Bears.

It was certainly "Ack's" day as it was his third inning double that sent Roland Valentine, who had singled, across with the winning run. Ron Coles followed with another single to score Ackerman.

Ivan walked six and whiffed nine in turning in his masterpiece.

Ack came right back in his next start Tuesday, May 27, to set down the Suffern Mounties, 2-1 without a hit.

Ivan gave up a run in the fourth on two walks and an error. The Blue and Gold tied it in the fifth when Gordon Swordsma tripled and scored on Dick Hoebee's fly.

In the last half of the seventh the Rams pulled it out of the fire. Ron Coles poked a pinch-hit double down the left field line and rode home on Roger Metzger's single.

The Rams picked up their first win of the season, Tuesday afternoon, April 30, at the Ramsey Grammar School, when they tripped the Bogota Bucs 8-7.

Roland Valentine gave up only 6 hits, but three of them came with men in scoring position. "Val" pitched no-hit ball for two innings while the Rams picked up two runs in the first and added one more in the second. In the third Bogota came up with two.

The game seasawed back and forth until the last of the sixth when the Rams picked up two runs to take the lead for the last time.

After a poor start, "big Ack" finally righted himself when he two-hit Fair Lawn, on Tuesday May 6, as the Blue and Gold took a 3-0 shutout.

Although they received good pitching from Roland Valentine the Rams dropped a 7-3 decision, Friday, May 8, to the Ridgewood Maroons.

The Maroons picked up only six hits, but five Ram errors paved the way for them. The Blue and Gold got three runs in the first on Valentine's single and three Ridgewood errors. The Maroons got two back in their half on a walk and a home run.

With the help of Ram errors, Ridgewood scored two times in each of the fourth and fifth innings and once in the sixth, to put the game on ice.

Junior Bill Ten Eyck made his first start for the Blue and Gold Wednesday, May 28, at Bogota and dropped a 6-3 decision.

Ten Eyck pitched well enough to win, but a four run third inning by Bogota lost him the game. The Rams took 1-0 lead in the third but the Bucs come back with four. Bogota added single runs in the fourth and fifth while the Rams did the same in the fifth and sixth.

On Memorial Day afternoon, the Rams did something that not even last year's B.P.I.L. champs could do — that is, they beat Ridgewood at Ramsey.

Behind Roland Valentine's fine pitching, the Murraymen ripped the Maroons 9-4.

Ridgewood took an early lead tallying single runs in the first and fourth. In the fifth, three hits, a Ridgewood error, a walk and fielder's choice sent four runs across and the Rams led 4-2. The Maroons tied the score in their half of the sixth, but made four errors in the Ram's half to help the Rams to five big runs and the ball game.

It was "Val's" last start of the season and it brought his seasonal slate to 2 and 3.

The Jay Vees, under the able tutorage of Mr. Seelig Lewitz piled up an impressive 8 and 1 record. Doug Ensor, Hadley Ford, Bill Hoabee, and Lynn Morozin all pitched complete games for the Little Rams. Catcher Jack Martins and first baseman Jack Ramsey lead the team in hitting.

Had Pete Newell stayed at Ramsey instead of moving to Florida, He would have been a welcomed addition to this year's track squad as he led his conference in shot-putting. Pete pushed the 12 pound ball better than 45 feet.

More than once during the next few years Mr. Byrne will pick up a paper, read that Jim Watson is breaking 10 seconds for the century and wonder why he ever left Ramsey High.

Led by sprinters Don Verleur, Jim Watson, and Herman Brummer the Ram Cindermen successfully defended their individual Events title of the twin Boro Relays, Thursday night, May 30, at the Hasbrouck Heights Athletic Field.

Verleur and Watson finished 2-3 in the 100, while Brummer lost his second race of the season to Don Heightamen, Westwood's state quarter mile champ.

Carl Hayunga took a third in the mile to wrap up the title for Byrnesmen.

CINDERMEN HAVE GOOD YEAR

A triangular meet between Ramsey, Bogota and Pompton Lakes held Thursday, May 1, resulted in a 57-49-12 victory for the Blue and Gold. Bogota with 49 points finished second, leaving Pompton in third with a meager score of 12.

Ramsey victors included Don Verleur, who won the 100 in 10:2 which is an exceptionally fast time, and Jim Watson, winner of the 220 in 23:2. Herm Brummer took the 440 in 53 seconds, and he also won the discus. Gus Vanderwoude was first in the mile, with a time of 4:49:3.

A surprise winner for the Rams was Roland "Val" Valentine who took the road jump, leaping 18'6". This was the first meet in which "Val" had ever participated. This win clinched the meet for Ramsey.

Watson finished second in the 100 and Verleur second in the 220. In the 440 Tony Nardo took third and Dick Hoebee fourth. Ron Sussex was third and John Stasny fourth in the half mile. Chris Scherer was third in the discus and Don Teigen third in the shot-put while George Smallwood placed second in the pole vault.

Gus Vanderwoude had to undergo an appendectomy soon after the Ramsey-Bogota-Pompton meet and will be out for the remainder of the season.

Coach Byrnes cindermen dropped their first meet of the season on Thursday, May 4, to Ridgewood by a slim 48-47 margin.

If breaks had fallen the right way Ramsey might very well have emerged victorious. In the 100, won by Jim Watson in 10:6 Don Verleur got off to a bad start which caused him to finish third. Carl Hayunga failed to take second in the mile only because he mistook the finish line for another line which lay 10 feet in front of it. Consequently Carl slowed down after crossing the first line, and a Ridgewood runner swept past him to cop second place, leaving Hayunga to finish third. If Verleur had finished second in the 100, and Hayunga second in the mile, Ramsey would have won the meet.

Other winners beside Watson were Verleur in the 220, Brummer in the 440 and the shot-put Chris Scherer in the discus, and George Smallwood in the pole vault. Ramsey also won the mile relay.

The Blue and Gold returned to winning ways against N. Y. Military Academy Saturday, May 10, defeating the New Yorkers 54-32 at the losers track.

Highlighting numerous Ramsey winners were Jim Watson who took the 100 in his best time of the season — 10:1, and Don Wales, winner of the hurdles, an event in which he had not previously participated.

Victory number three for the Rams came Wednesday, May 14, as they trounced Don Bosco Prep of Ramsey at the loser's field by a score of 58-23.

Don Verleur won the 100 yd. dash in the Englewood invitation tourney held Saturday, May 17. His time, 11 seconds, was slower than he often records. He was timed at 10:2 at a meet held earlier this season.

Monday, May 19, Ramsey traveled to Spring Valley where they dropped their second meet of the season to Spring Valley High.

New York States' rules which allow a contestant to participate in only two events during a meet, kept Herm Brummer from being in some of three or four events he usually enters. His absence in those races may have dealt a death blow to the Blue and Gold who lost the meet by but 4 points.

Lyndhurst won the B. P. I. L. track championship, Saturday, May 24, in an all league meet in which Fair Lawn placed second and Ramsey third.

The sole Ram winner was Herm Brummer, who took the 440 in 53:5.

The Byrnesmen also copped the relay event. Jim Watson was second in the 100 and Don Verleur fourth. George Smallwood was second in the Pole vault.

There has been many requests for a girls swimming team but no plans have been made as yet.

Miss Jean Smith and Mrs. Betty Brown deserve the credit for the swell sports season so therefore we extend our thanks to them.

Speaking of legitimate excuses for the numerous absentees, here is the excuse of the month:

"To whom it may concern, Kenneth was absent yesterday, May 15th because he was feeling well."
