"Dawn To Dusk" Drive Sunday By Boy Scouts

From dawn to dusk on Sunday, Allendale residents will be thoroughly canvassed in the annual solicitation for Boy Scouting, J. Bennett Monaghan, local drive chairman announced today. Funds go to the North Bergen County Council, which this year expects contributions of $117,000 to carry out the scouting program for training and better citizenship.

Sixty volunteer workers have been assigned sections of the Borough and will attempt to call at every home during the day. Follow up calls will be made during the week on families who are not at home Sunday.

The Advance Gifts Committee reports that contributions to date exceeded last year, and the expectation is the the Borough totals will run over the 1951 collection by almost $1,000.

Mr. Monaghan pointed out that the money raised in this drive goes directly to the North Bergen County Council, which works very closely with Allendale Scout leaders in all their activities. "If we didn't have the services of the Council at our disposal, we would have to have a trained Scout executive on our payroll to help carry out our program," he said.

A large part of the Scouting program in town is done by the Cub Scouts and they also benefit from the professional help of the Council. Allendale has at present 8 Cub Dens, which means approximately 50 boys are in line to go into the Boy Scout program. There are approximately 30 Boy Scouts in town.

Assisting Mr. Monaghan on the drive committee are Ralph W. Norton, Vice Chairman; Edward V. Unser, Advanced Gifts Chairman; H. L. Bogart, Publicity; and A. W. Ahrens, auditing chairman.

Captains of the fund raising teams are H. C. Perkins, James W. Hall, John Cogan, Edward DeJongh, Pool F. Davis, J. P. Flynn, J. J. Cebak, W. J. Smith and E. F. Winslow.

JUDGES SELECT WINNING DESIGNS

The prize winning block print design to be used for Christmas cards to be sold by Archer Memorial Church has been chosen. The winner was Mrs. Dorothy Shuit, who also won two honorable mention prizes with other designs submitted in the contest.

Second place went to Mrs. Martin Husing, 100 Elmwood, who also won an honorable mention award.

The judges: Mrs. W. B. Rhodes, Mrs. Elizabeth Berdan, Mrs. S. E. Staines and Mrs. Abbe Rose Craven, chose prize winning designs on the basis of suitability and artistry.

As soon as the winning contestants have carved their blocks and prints have been made, a downtown window display will be arranged.

School Board Request Students Return Tickets

Unused bus tickets, if returned to the school would result in considerable savings, was one of the many items discussed at the meeting of the Allendale Board of Education on Tuesday night.

Commissioner L. R. McPeck brought the matter to the attention of the board after he learned tickets were not being returned. The cost of the transportation for local students however is very reasonable and with few exceptions would not result in large savings for the board. Parents were asked to return any unused tickets however.

Another transportation problem discussed by the members was the matter of "late tickets" for students delayed after the usual time because of extra activities. Mrs. Laura Geisna was directed to investigate the possibilities along this line and if possible secure them for students, now either walking from Ramsey or paying the usual fare.

The streets of Allendale, ablaze with trees in their fall colors have never looked lovelier. But those bright colored leaves will soon be down and in this connection, Fire Chief Martin Wetterauw issued a warning to all citizens not to burn leaves in the street.

Leaves may be burned, the Chief said, on private property if proper precautions are taken for safety and if a fire permit is obtained from the Police Department.

Objectors Have Inning At First Public Hearing

The Borough Council is now in process of holding a series of meetings devoted to hearing arguments for and against the new zoning ordinance. The first of these meetings, held a week ago, was marked by a large audience of townspeople, many of whom had prepared statements to protest proposals in the ordinance. The meeting adjourned at midnight and was to have been continued last night at Brookside School.

STORE WINDOWS PAINTING CONTEST NEXT WEEK-END

Witches, goblins, and owls in the night will be seen among other Halloween scenes on downtown store windows next weekend, members of the Holiday Observers announce.

Alexander Ott, general chairman of the annual window painting contest has distributed to the school applications for entry. All children in the fifth grade or above may enter the competition.

School will recess for the contestants as noon next Friday. Painting may be done on Friday and Saturday. Judges will pick the winners on Sunday and gift certificates from local merchants will be awarded.

Mr. Ott would like all applications turned in to him at Better Signs Studio, W. Allendale Ave., as soon as possible in order that windows may be assigned and details of the contest understood by contestants in advance of Friday noon.

The rules are simple and merely ask children to be sure that their window painting subjects relate to Halloween, that entrants bring their own empty tin cans to him for their

New Ambulance To Be Dedicated Here Sunday

Allendale's new ambulance will be dedicated at 2 p.m. Sunday afternoon in front of the ambulance shed by the firehouse. The public is invited to attend.

Members of the Volunteer Ambulance Corps will be on hand to welcome members of the community interested in seeing the newly acquired equipment.

Bud Van Houten, President of the Corps, announced that Mayor Leslie Johnson will give a brief dedicatory speech and that the Rev. Harry Goodrick and Father Kalafsky would take part in the service.

Jack Comley, Captain of the Corps, will be present to give information on the "rig", which is a Superior Cadillac, 1952 model, light grey in color, containing the very latest in first aid equipment.

The new resuscitator, recently purchased in behalf of the Lions Club which is giving the appliance to the town, will be on display along with the ambulance.

This service will mark the end of a long term project on the part of the Ambulance Corps. In 1939, when our old ambulance was new, the Corps decided to start saving money for the day when a new one would be needed. Through fund raising activities, during the past 13 years money was raised and invested in War Bonds. This year the Corps was only $2,500 short of the amount needed to buy the new machine. In August a drive for funds was launched which was successful and brought the sum to $10,000 needed to buy the new ambulance.

Allendale serves a large population with its Ambulance and last year totaled more than 300 calls. Communities of Wyckoff, Mahwah, Waldwick, Ramsey, Upper Saddle River and Saddle River, are served. Volunteer Corpsmen from these communities have been invited to attend the dedication and open house which will follow the service.

Moderation and propriety were the keynotes of the first informal hearing. Most of the speakers had specific objections to raise and definite recommendations to make. Most of them submitted written statements to be a part of the meeting's official record.

The Mayor and Council quickly dispensed with regular council reports in order to allow the maximum time for public discussion. Each member of the Council, determined to give fair consideration to the objections raised, sat with pencil poised ready to make notes on individual protests.

Mayor Leslie Johnson keynoted the meeting with a short explanation to the audience of how he felt the new ordinance differed from the old. He pointed out that the ordinance was designed to keep the same proportion in building as now exists in town. "The old ordinance would allow a growth of at least 12,000 population and this would be about double the number the Planning Board estimates as desirable growth in the next 30 years," he said.

Mayor Johnson also said that the ordinance would attempt to limit the need for a trunk sewer to the downtown area, and not make sewers necessary throughout the borough. He reminded townspeople that the new ordinance was more flexible in its requirements and makes allowances for adjustments to be made in cases where the own... reasonably... ing...

"Fortunately, the floor of the Teanack Armory will accommodate the additional booths without crowding. With some 304 booths displaying home construction, home improvements, housewares, and other items of interest to home owners, we feel that we shall have a worthwhile exhibit for the residents of Bergen County during Home Show week, November 1 to 8."

Local Firm Featured In Movies For Company

Central Garage, Myrtle Ave., has been turned into a movie lot on weekends for the purpose of making an Esso trade movie. The Brothers Megnin, owners of the garage, have confessed they aren't quite sure "what it's all about," but they are cooperating with the cameras.

According to Gene Megnin, a publicity man for Esso said the company wanted to make a trade movie of a service station which had grown with the community. They also wanted, Mr. Megnin said, a station that promoted a friendly feeling with its customers in the community.

"The publicity man said we filled the bill," Mr. Megnin reported, "and they started making a movie." "We don't know what the plot is, or if it has one but we will get a copy of the reel when it's all over and then we will see."

Three weeks ago the sound effects were made. Last Saturday afternoon pictures were taken of cars being serviced at the gas pumps. This weekend more pictures will be taken of other operations.

All the men employed at Central Garage are to be in the picture; George W. Mengin, Gene Megnin, Barney Megnin, George W. Megnin II, Bill Kunis, Jack Tackaberry and Jack Maquire.

Mr. Megnin said that his brother George started the garage and also a taxi company at the Myrtle Avenue location in 1919. In the past 33 years the garage has expanded its services, "grown with the community" and now finds itself being made into a movie. "We really don't know how it will turn out," Mr. Megnin said, "but they promised us a copy of the final film and we will have it to show around town."

HALLOWEEN PARTY TO BE HELD AT SCHOOL OCT. 31

The annual Halloween costume party staged by the Holiday Observers for the youngsters of Allendale will be held at 7:30 in the auditorium of the public school on Friday October 31.

A spokesman for the Holiday Observers said that cartoon movies and community singing films would be shown. Refreshments of cider and doughnuts will be served.

The traditional costume competition will be held after the show. Judges will pick the twenty best costumes and the winners will each receive a prize of one dollar.

Because Halloween falls on a Friday this year, a record turnout of youngsters is expected. Parents are invited to bring along small children who might enjoy the party.

This party is one of the regular events of the Holiday Observers, an organizations unique in that it's sole purpose is to provide a full program of activities for the youngsters of Allendale on holiday occasions. Proceeds from the Fourth of July program provide the necessary funds for the organization to make possible the Halloween party.

COUNTY SCHOOL TO HOLD DEDICATION

A number of educators and heads of local Board of Education will be among the 400 invited guests expected to attend the formal dedication this Saturday, Oct. 18, of the Bergen County Vocational and Technical High School. The exercises, which will begin at 2 p.m. will be held in the physical education room of the new building on Hackensack Ave., Hackensack.

Classes began Sept. 24 at the new school. Approximately 700 students can be accommodated. Adult evening courses are also being given.

The building, regarded as the most outstanding of its kind in the country, has been so designed as to permit students to learn their respective trades while studying. For example, the carpentry shop has been designed to permit students to build a 2-story frame house, completely wired, painted, plastered, and equipped with all plumbing facilities. The furnace room has gas, oil, steam systems, as well as an iron stoker, to permit students to learn each of these types of heating equipment.

SERMONETTE

Why Public Worship

Rev. B. Hancock

Much of the discussion one hears about public worship is barren and unproductive because those who argue are not agreed about the place of church going in the Christian life. And yet it must be admitted that a convinced Christian will try to follow Christ's example, and it cannot be denied that His custom was to attend public worship each week. Furthermore, the New Testament assumes that a Christian will be a member of the worshiping fellowship. People are free to decide for themselves whether they attend church or not, but it is doubtful if a man who deliberately refuses to worship with others can claim the name 'Christian' in the New Testament sense of the word.

It is true that there are people who never seem to feel the need for worship. They manage to live clean, moral lives without it and some therefore ask, 'Isn't this enough? Isn't this proof that they are good Christians?' It proves nothing of the sort. A good Jew or a good Mohammedan may lead an upright, moral life, and they are not Christians.

Why, then, should Christian people worship? Of what use is it? Life would be very empty indeed if we only did things because they brought us a tangible reward. The truth of the matter is that the best things in life - love and happiness and friends - have no assessable value. Similarly, worship is one of those things about which we ought not to ask, 'What is the use of it?' Such a question is irrelevant. Some people say that they do not go to church because they get no benefit from it. They 'do not enjoy the service.' In other words they have not gained anything for themselves. But surely the fundamental purpose of worship is to glorify God, not to entertain man. Public worship is not primarily intended to make people better. We should go to church to honour God, not to gain something for ourselves.

In practice, however, public worship does make people better. A man must be strangely lacking in imagination if he is not moved to higher thoughts as he joins in the Church's worship. If he fails to benefit, the fault is more likely to be in himself than in the service. Life has been compared with a three legged stool - it is supported by body, mind and soul. If a man neglects any one of the three he is trying to sit down on a stool one of whose legs is missing. A full and balanced life will take account of the needs of body, mind and soul.

Is there any one of us who has not felt uplifted when we have been one of a crowd of worshippers? The atmosphere of united worship is very powerful. The mere fact of our going to church may be an encouragement and a help to others, quite apart from any good we may think to gain for ourselves. But it will be said that some church-goers do not seem to be any better thereby. Supposing we could estimate the influence of worship on the lives of others; is it right to judge a society, a church or a nation by its failures? Our prisons are full of convicted law breakers but we should resent the charge that we are therefore a nation of criminals. We judge a nation not by its failures, but by the great men and women it has produced. Similarly the Church has produced many great saints, and most, if not all, of the great Christian saints have been associated with the Church. We may rightly infer that it is the Church's worship which has contributed not a little to their sanctity.

'Can't we worship God at home?' some folks ask. But can those who ask such a question say honestly that they do worship God at home or in the open air? Of course we ought to worship God at home, and one's experience is that those who worship Him publicly worship God privately. But private worship is no substitute for public worship. Both are necessary. The danger of private worship is that it becomes a matter of our mood. If we feel like it we worship; if we do not feel like it we neglect worship. But this is to put worship on the same level as an entertainment. A man cannot live a Christian life in isolation. Christianity can be fully practiced only in fellowship. The man who says that his religion is a private affair is deceiving himself. In other words, the Church is necessary, Christians would have had to organize a Church if our Lord Himself had not laid the foundations. Why have political parties? Because if we keep our views to ourselves and refuse to vote we do not count. But if we ally ourselves with others of like views and vote for the candidate who shares our views, then our views count for something. If we worship privately only and regard our religion as a matter between ourselves and God alone, we may have a religion but it will not be the Christian religion.

Can We Afford To Shun Industry?

James E. Hanson, vice president of Alexander Summer Industrial Service Co. of Newark in a press release this week urges communities to re-examine their zoning and to invite industry to aid the tax burdened resident to carry the load in the ever increasing taxes now leveled against home owners.

Mr. Hanson, a qualified expert in the field of industrial development, really has something there and we started a little investigation among our residents on how they felt about industry moving into Allendale. The results of the simple question weighted heavily against anything industrial and if the people don't want industry they must be prepared to pay a ever increasing amount of taxes but this is something nobody wants except a very few.

We too are against the dirty, smoky, smelly industrial plants but we don't have them. We can under the zoning laws have our choice of what we want and what kind of a plant we will allow here. We need not take what comes down the pike but select the choicest and then do everything to encourage them to locate here. The point is we have encouraged them in the past and will we do it in the future?

To our mind we should, for to keep out industry is something only the very wealthy can afford. Industry can help balance the staggering costs of schools and add but little to our other costs. Industrial plants don't add anything to school costs and that it the real problem in any community such as Allendale because of its single family homes. Industry offers a balance for our budget and that's something we need badly here.

Most folks have noticed the beautiful industrial plants scattered around our nearby highways and they add beauty to any community such as ours.

The Planning Board have seen fit to increase their size of the industrial zoning 4 times over the original zoning maps. This is a slight decrease over the Planning Consultant's recommendations. All in all they have allotted about 44 acres. Most of it is along the railroad with a small portion near Route 17. Possibly we still are trying to hide the industrial buildings. Don't. You won't have to be ashamed with the building and parking now being erected by management.

We would like the Planning Board and the Council to be a little more enthusiastic when approached by industry.

Pen Points By REE QUACKENBUSH

Hi Neighbor,
Communism to some of us, looms up as a nine red letter word, that endangers our way of life. To others, it is a choice of free speech allowed under the Constitution of the United States.

Just what is Communism? It is a highly organized party controlled by a foreign power, believing in the overthrow of the government by force. Did any of the countries, now controlled by Russia elect to be communistic or were they driven by force? When one joins the Communist party, he swears to live up to the doctrines of Communism, one being the dictates of Russia and the overthrow of a government by force.

Article 4, Section 4, of the Constitution guarantees to every state a republican form of government, meaning the sovereign power belongs to the people. Article 7, Amendment 1—"Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof, or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government to redress of grievances."

Just how long did it take us to get rid of Earl Browder and his peaceable assemblies, which endangered our war effort? His so-called free speech in a letter to the Tribune, July 23, 1943, denounced the Republics of Roosevelt's war efforts, while he calmly tied up shipping to the armed forces. Is this any longer free speech, or is it acts of treason?

The Un American Activities Committee is to meet in Chicago to investigate Communist activities, which are endangering our way of life. There are laws on the statute books which make it a crime for a Communist to work in a war industry. Red bosses are planning a Chicago welcome committee to "Drive the committee out of town," before it can uncover anything damaging to Red espionage or their sabotage systems that exists in our key defense industries. Does this look like peaceful assembly?

One might expect the President of the United States to make a non political speech on Columbus day to further the ideals of our great democracy and denounce Senator McCarran (a Democrat) who is doing all in his power to stop Communist espionage and infiltration for such in the United States.
Truman said, "Sen. Pat McCarran is not my kind of Democrat. We are pledged by our platform to remove discrimination from our immigration laws. The McCarran act must go."

Now let's look at the McCarran-Walter bill. Just who does it discriminate against? The bill goes into effect Dec. 24, "Non-citizens coming here from Alaska will be carefully inspected and Communists—if any are found, will be sent back and deported."
Screening persons on their arrival for espionage, proven by their past records, proves to you and me that there are still great Americans who believe it is their duty to protect you and me against treasonous acts. McCarran is making America safe for democracy. He is within the laws of our constitution in doing so. Communists do not believe in free speech for you and me once they gain

LOVE ONE ANOTHER

This person so irksome to me. I prayed God in some way to change her.
But instead my Father changed me.
As I think of the one that I prayed for.
God's infinite wisdom I see. It was not that one, for the saw control. They believe in dictatorship controlling your way of life. The Reds have imprisoned between 150,000 and 250,000 Anti Reds in East German concentration camps. Does this look like they believe in free speech—or a free way of life.

Oct. 4, Stalin completed his 25,000 word message on economics, which lays down a Program for world Communism. Does this look like Communism is making the world free from aggression by peaceable assemblies? Is this an encouragement of free speech throughout the world?

Why should we denounce McCarran, who has vindicated, only after thorough investigation, many who have been the dupes of Communism. He has also proven many to be Anti-American. It's up to you and me, as Americans to support all Americans regardless of their party, regardless of Presidential orders, regardless of political speeches decrying their efforts to insure our domestic tranquility, our way of life, under our Constitution.

School Notes

In potted plants and together with the flowers our room looks very pleasant.

We made spatter prints of leaves last week and we are pleased with the way they look.

GRADE 1—MRS. BERLIN
We are going to start our first Pre-primer this week and are all very anxious to read our very first stories from our own books.

We are decorating our room for Halloween. Soon it will look very scary.

Jimmy Demaree left us to go to Pennsylvania but has returned to stay with us for a while.

This week we saw three very good movies, "The Little Red Hen", "The Big Bad Wolf" and "A Little Bird Told Me." They were very enjoyable. We hope to see more soon.

GRADE FOUR MRS. KNIGHT

We are very much pleased to have all one kind of furniture in our room this year. We are taking good care of it. Our new work table has already had much use and we've done a good bit of travelling with our new maps.

TREATS FOR HALLOWEEN

The hobgoblin season is here—time for witches, ghosts and devils of all sizes to ring neighborhood doorbells and demand "a treat."

This year when the youthful spooks arrive on your doorstep why not be prepared with some really good nutritious candy? Candy apples are right in the Halloween tradition, so be sure to have an ample supply around. For grown-ups—have some chocolates on hand. Here's a Candy Apple recipe the small fry will love. Recipe is from the Research Kitchens of Blue Bonnet Margarine.

CANDY APPLES

2 cups sugar 1/4 teaspoon salt
1 cup light corn syrup 1/4 cup Blue Bonnet Margarine
1/2 cup water 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
12 red apples on sticks

Place sugar, corn syrup, water and salt in a deep saucepan. Place over moderate heat. Stir constantly until mixture begins to boil. Cook without stirring to 290° F. (or until a small amount dropped in cold water becomes brittle). As crystals collect on sides of pan, wipe them away with a damp cloth. Add the margarine and cinnamon and stir in gently. Continue to cook without stirring to 300° F., or until syrup is brittle while under cold water but becomes soft and plastic when removed. Remove the syrup from direct heat and set at once over hot water. Dip apples on sticks into hot syrup. Remove and twist to spread the syrup evenly. Hold apple over pan a minute or two, then place on greased baking sheet or waxed paper. Forks may be substituted for sticks if necessary—the apples taste just as good. Yield: 12 Candy Apples. (ANS)

MUSIC DEPARTMENT MRS. SMITHEY

We are looking forward to the first symphony concert, planned especially for children of the Elementary schools, to be held Thursday, November 20 in the Plaza Theater in Englewood.

The orchestra will play the "Danse Macabre" by Saint Saëns, "España" a Rhapsody on Spanish Themes by Chabrier, "First Arlesienne Suite" by Bizet, "Overture to the Opera Mignon" by Thomas, "Three German Dances" by Mozart. They will demonstrate "Orchestral Bells"—flute, Bassoon, French Horn, Violin, Xylophone, trombone, trumpet, harp, percussion instruments.

Since all tickets are at the unbelievably low price of $1, we hope a large group from Allendale will go to this.

Epiphany Guild will hold a Rummage Sale on Friday, Oct. 24th, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Parish Hall, Franklin Turnpike. Contributions may be left at

RAMSEY, N. J. Ramsey 9 - 1066

Dear Sir:

An unpleasant and even vicious attack was made recently by a correspondent in The Allendale Press on members of the Council and Planning Board and particularly the Mayor of Allendale.

The charges were false and had no basis in the facts. Perhaps everyone in Allendale believes that these officials are men of integrity and of unusual competence. All of your readers undoubtedly discount violent criticism when they are aware that it comes from sources that have personal axes to grind. No one has patience with charges of lack of personal integrity, regardless of their source, when the charges are so obviously untrue.

The officials, at whom the mud was thrown, have sacrificed much time and energy, without compensation, to promote the interests of Allendale as a whole. Debate over a matter of general public interest should not be permitted to descend to the level of unfair and false personal charges.

J. R. Foster

Dear Sir:

After reading and hearing some of the recently deplorable attacks on Allendale's volunteer, able sincere and unpaid public servants who are serving on the Borough Council and the Planning Board, I, for one, cannot sit by and complacently ignore such slanderous attacks.

I know of no group of Allendale citizens more deserving of our respect, confidence and active support than our Mayor, our six members of the Borough Council and the nine members of the Planning Board headed by its chairman, Francis X. Scaforo, a respected official of a New York bank.

Individually and collectively they have given freely and uncomplainingly of their time, their talents to help keep Allendale a most desirable residential suburban community. Instead of spending their eve-

Parents are invited to go to school next Tuesday evening at 8:15 for the PTA "Back to School Night." There will be a brief business meeting of the PTA in the auditorium, which will be followed by two half-hour sessions when parents can visit their children's classrooms and meet the teachers.

This annual program is part of the year round effort of the PTA to acquaint parents with the work of the school and the academic activities of their children.

Following the classroom sessions a social hour will be held. Refreshments of coffee and cake will be served.

The special teachers of home economics, manual training, music and physical education will give talks on the programs in their departments.

American Legion Post 204 will hold an old time hoe down square dance at Memorial Hall Saturday evening, Nov. 1.

There will be three classes of contestants. First class will be for the 5th and 6th graders, second class for 7th and 8th graders and the third class will be for high school students.

Water paints in all colors and brushes will be provided by Mr. Ott.

Mr. Bradley Rhodes, Chairman of the Judging Committee has secured three excellent "out of town" judges to decide on the prize winners in the window decorating contest. They are Merritt P. Weiss, Jr., Art Director of Dumont Television, Frank Van Auken and Al Harsnett, United Whelan artists. The judging will take place on Sunday, Oct. 26.

The chairman of the entertainment committee is Martin Husing while Bob Davis heads up the refreshments. Stiles Thomas made arrangements for providing of windows for decorations.

PLANNING BOARD

(Continued From Page One) original "Master Plan" as prepared by the consultants and is not the same as in the revised zoning program as now proposed and is therefore incorrect according to President Scafuro. He explained the changes were the elimination of the Celery farm, Thurston's pond and Crestwood from the new planning with an all important footnote that this locations on the revised planning are alternative locations for future developments. He pointed out these maps are misleading. The revised maps are not available for replacing the maps shown in the "Master Plan" booklet.

The board which ordinarily meets the Monday following the first Thursday council meeting was held Tuesday because of the Monday holiday.

FOREIT GETS O.K. ON BUILDING ERROR

William Foreit was granted an exception to the zoning law last week to permit him to keep a garage for heavy construction equipment less than 10 feet from the back line of his property, where he had begun to build it in error.

Mr. Foreit had technically violated the building code when he laid out his Foreit Construction Co. garage within four to five feet of the back property line. Building Inspector Werner Baarek, noting this had advised him to apply to the Board of Adjustment for an exception, which he did.

Surrounding property owners offered no objection to Mr. Foreit's application and so it was granted, with one dissenting voice from Edmund Groszick. The Board's decision, announced last Thursday, was unanimous, however.

Mr. Groszick, unable to attend, submitted a written opinion against granting the exception. A contractor, as Mr. Foreit is, should certainly be familiar with the law, Mr.

Groszick pointed out. He said that Mr. Foreit should therefore be compelled to obey the law, which stipulates that such garages should be not less than 10 feet from the property line.

Mr. Foreit told the Board of Adjustment at their hearing early last week that because he planned to erect another structure on the property, which is on Park Ave. opposite the Allendale Coal and Lumber Co., he thought he could consider the garage an accessory building.

Chairman Fred Richerich and Mrs. Ina B. Hamilton were present at the Adjustment Board hearing. Mr. Richerich, Mrs. Hamilton and Albert Scafuro were present at the Thursday meeting when the final decision was taken.
