OLD TIME ALLENDALE SCENES

This photo of Upper West Allendale Avenue is looking from the present Plaza toward Franklin Turnpike. That is the old Kornhoff Bakery on the right.

This view of the Erie Railroad depot is taken around 1900. The building is the same, only the area has changed.

This is a view of West Orchard Street, looking west toward the Erie Railroad.
