

THERE'S ONE EVERY HUNDRED YEARS: Saturday was Allendale's Tercentenary Day, and over a 1,000 children enjoyed the parade and picnic that followed it at the recreation field. Riding one of the 10 ponies at the field is Debby Dewar, 4½. Directly above, Edward Meyer Sr. and Edward Meyer Jr., 2, lead the Ridgewood Fire Department, one of 17 in the parade. Below, the Calvary Lutheran Church float, which won third prize, leads the Chamber of Commerce float, second-prize winner, around the 2.2-mile course. (The Record photographs.)
