

ALLENDALE IS 80 YEARS OLD! To celebrate our town's birthday and also as the first of many bi-centennial celebrations, we're having the third Old-Fashioned Country Fair--a fun-filled day for the entire family.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

- 7:30.....Flag Raising at Borough Hall
9:00.....Parade Assembly at Crestwood Park
9:30.....Parade begins
11:00.....Official Opening Ceremony -- Crestwood Park
11:30.....Fair Activities Begin -- Crestwood Park
Puppet Show: "The Wizard of Oz"
3:00.....Quilt Raffle

At various times throughout the day there will be craft demonstrations and Calliope and German Oom-pah Band concerts.

SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS

Flea Market
Bazaar--hand-made items
Quilt Raffle
Children's Games
Whip and Fire Engine Rides
Ferris Wheel
Pony Rides
"Moon Walk"
Country Store--Cheeses, Maple Syrup, etc.
Children's Picture with Clown
Needlework Contest
Guessing Contest

For Sale:
Balloons
House Plants
Used Books
Home-baked Foods
Paintings, Watercolors, and Posters
Penny Candy
Dried and Artificial Flower Arrangements

Refreshments will include: hot dogs, heros, donuts, pretzels, cotton candy, popcorn, sno-cones, soda, and coffee.

PARTICIPATING ORGANIZATIONS

Allendale Ambulance Corps
Allendale Athletic Association
Allendale Fire Department
Allendale Newcomer's Club
Allendale P. T. O.
American Legion
Bi-Centennial Committee
Boy Scout Troop #59
Brookside Music Association
Community Arts Association
Cub Scout Packs #59 and #252
Democratic Club
Friends of the Library
Girl Scout Cadettes
Junior Woman's Club
League of Women Voters
Republican Club
Valley Hospital Auxiliary
We Care Tutoring
Woman's Club
Woman's Evening Club
XYZ Club

PARADE--Sponsored by the Allendale Fire Department. Scheduled to begin at 9:30. Parade Route: parade begins at Crestwood Park, then north on West Crescent Avenue, right on Myrtle Avenue, through the center of town, right on Memorial Drive, right on West Orchard Street, left on Park Avenue, right on Brookside Avenue, right on West Crescent Avenue back to Crestwood Park.

NEEDLEWORK CONTEST--Sponsored by the Junior Woman's Club. The Needlework Contest is open to one and all. Entry blanks for the contest may be picked up at various locations around town. The categories will be crewel, needlepoint, and embroidery--all divided into original designs and kits. You may enter as many items in as many categories as you wish. Entries will be judged by Gail Devens, owner of the "Sip 'N Stitch" in Saddle River, at approximately 12 noon and will be on display as soon as the judging has been completed. Don't miss seeing the needlework display.

QUILT RAFFLE--At 3:00 P.M., the Evening Woman's Club will raffle a beautiful quilt, made in the Cathedral Window pattern and measuring 80" x 90". Raffle tickets on this one-of-a-kind handsewn quilt are $1 and may be obtained at the Fair or from Mrs. Jean Lee (825-2124) or Mrs. Dottie Dyer (825-3382). All proceeds go to scholarship projects. Approximate retail value for this work of art is $500.

PENNY GUESSING CONTEST--Win a prize! Guess the exact number of pennies in the huge jar! 2 guesses for 25¢. On Fair day, guess at the Information Booth. The winner will be announced at the end of the day.