

Many of the area's old homes have taken on new significance against the background of the nation's Bicentennial. This pre-Civil War gem at 100 E. Allendale Ave., Allendale, has only recently become the prized possession of the Lawrence Fields family.