Congratulations

To a Company that Cares From a Company that Cares

It is the thousands of fire departments in small towns, such as Allendale, across this nation, that have made this country great. Your plights in the middle of the night, and life-threatening encounters, may seem to go unnoticed. Do not be discouraged. Your community appreciates your devotion to duty. It gives us a warm, secure feeling knowing you are there when the alarm sounds.

This is your day to bask in the spotlight, although your moments of glory should prevail 365 days a year.

Hail to you, Heroes & Friends.

We reach out with thanks.
