

ment First Aid Squad, which responded with a truck and the police ambulance.

Also in the line of march were the Closter Rescue Squad, the Pompton Lakes Ambulance Corps, Pearl River First Aid Corps, Westwood Firemen's Ambulance Service, Park Ridge Fire Department Ambulance Service, Wood-Ridge Fire Departments Emergency Squad, New Milford Fire Department Emergency Service, and a large delegation from the emergency squad of Empire Hose Company 1, Pier-mont, N. Y., accompanied by Captain John Boyan of the Rockland County First Aid Council.

The parade was led by Waldwick Sons of Legion Drum Corps. Kenneth Booth of the Ambulance Corps was standard bearer. Public Safety Chairman Lyman Ceely, Chief Marshal J. O. Forshay, and Marshals J.
Frank Rouault and Fred VanHorn formed a police escort.

About 300 persons attended the ceremony. Those in the parade found refreshments awaiting them at the firehall.

---

CANDIDATES TO TALK

Candidates will speak at the regular meeting of Bergen County Women's Democratic Organization at Hackensack Woman's Clubhouse tomorrow night at 8:30.