

AC-7 Allendale

Red Cross Instructor Kenneth Booth gave the final examination to his latest Standard class at the Ambulance Corps Building. They are Mrs. Frank R. Collyer, Miss Albertina Christian, Mrs. Sylvester Collyer, Mrs. Harvie Davis, Mrs. William Dixon, Miss Helen P. Falcon, Mrs. Edmund Growsick, Mrs. Alwyn Grossmann, Mrs. Lewis H. Kort, Mrs. Lewis B. Kubler Jr., Miss Jeanette Schmidheine, Miss Mayrose Schmidheine, and Miss Esther Yachnin. They presented Mr. Booth with a fitted traveling case.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard McFarran moved from Ramsey to the Lynn house on First Street.

Mrs. Norman Critchley of Park Avenue entertained yesterday afternoon for Mrs. Winton Booth, Mrs. Kenneth Booth, Mrs. Elwood Critchley and Miss Audrey Booth.

James and Gordon Graham of Jersey City, formerly residents of Allendale were guests yesterday of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Hover and family of Park Avenue.

Mrs. Arthur Baird Fowler Jr. of East Allendale Avenue left this week on a trip to California.

Arthur Appert Jr. of Franklin Turnpike is home on vacation for three weeks from Princeton University where he took a summer course. He will return to Princeton for the fall term about September 15.

Mrs. Thomas J. Macgowan of Maple Street has returned home from a 5-week's visit with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs.
T. J. Macgowan Jr. of Newton Center, Mass. She also passed a few days with friends at Essex and Cos Cob, Conn.

Mrs. John A. Schomacker of Ivers Place was the guest on Wednesday of friends in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Miss Rowena Macgowan of Maple Street returned home Monday from a week passed at Asbury Park.