Bowman was arrested on a John Dow warrant on the complaint of John Kish of Allendale, who charged that after bumping into his truck Bowman refused to show his license and also became quarrelsome so that blows were exchanged. Kish got his license number and had summons issued. Bowman was represented by an attorney.

W. S. Crinkley of Hillside Avenue was fined $5 for allowing his dog to run at large after repeated warnings.

On the complaint of Marian Critchley of Heights Road, V. A. Baumgartner, of Franklin Avenue, Wyckoff, was found guilty of careless driving when he killed the Critchley dog. He was given a suspended sentence.
