

WHO WANTS A GOOD AIREDALE?

Dear Sir:

Would you please find space in your paper to print that Police Chief Booth of Allendale has fed five dogs in the last week or ten days out of the generous $10 fund started for strays by a kind-hearted Saddle River woman. The fund is now gone and one dog is left unclaimed—a miniature airedale of gentle nature for whom the Chief seeks a good home. You printed before in your paper about the donation of this woman. This will show how her kindness has prevented the early destruction of lost pets.

Allendale is indeed fortunate in having a Police Chief who is kind to animals and gives of his own time and frequently his own money to hold dogs past the dead line for their pound care.

I can recommend the airedale; it is a lost and unclaimed pet and very gentle; young and worthwhile. I hope that a home can be secured promptly for this dog. It is still waiting after ten days care so far.
