Forbes Leads Troast In Light Primary Vote

The unsuccessful candidate for Governor on the Republican primary slate, Malcolm S. Forbes, carried Allendale handily in Tuesday's election. He captured 251 votes over a vote of 117 for the regular Republican candidate Paul V. Toast, who had the support of the Republican club of Allendale.

Although Mr. Troast won the state, the heavy vote for Forbes in the borough was unexpected because he had no organized support from Republican politicians in the town. Mr. Forbes had campaigned vigorously against the GOP machine candidate in nearby communities.

The voting followed the usual light pattern of participation with 408 citizens voting. Of the 408 votes cast, 18 were entered by registered Democrats.

The Democrats cast 10 votes for the successful gubernatorial candidate Robert Meyner and 5 for Elmer Wene.

Voting was slow throughout most of the day with the heaviest count totaled during the evening hours. The only unusual aspect of the count came when the Democratic voting machine was opened and it was discovered that one voter had written in a number of Republicans he wanted to vote for. In the voter's attempt to bolt the party line, he wrote some of his choices on the wrong lines. This caused a half hour headache to the election board which had to fill out a separate tally sheet to record the vote.

Neighbors In Court To Settle Driveway Problem

Judge Morris Scharf had a busy court session Tuesday evening in the firehouse settling controversies and issuing fines for driving violations.

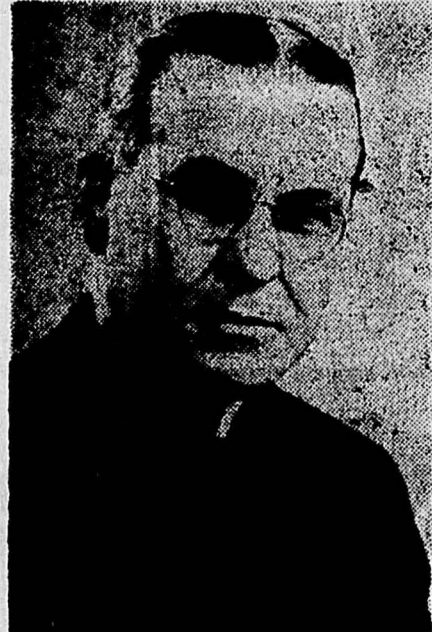

David and Bernie Kaplan appeared with William T. Hughes in lieu of complaint before the magistrate to discuss a situation which Mr. Hughes says exists on his property behind the Kaplan Cleaners. Mr. Hughes stated that refuse from the cleaning establishment had been dumped on his property and that cleaning trucks had been driving through his property in violation of a "No Trespassing" sign posted.

The judge advised the Kaplan brothers to "Do what they thought best about the matter". Magistrate Scharf plans to make an inspection tour of the property and if conditions do not improve, he will accept a written complaint from Mr. Hughes.

A complaint issued by George Erickson, Health Officer for the borough, against Richard Bunassi, owner of a duplex home at 215 Park Ave. was

The League plans to turn over proceeds from the 3rd Annual Horse Show to be held in Tallman, N. Y. July 11 to the Heart Fund.

Farrell Seeks Delivery Of All Mail in Borough

Home mail delivery for all residents of Allendale, long advocated by civic organizations, political leaders and private citizens, may become a reality for the borough in the near future.

Postmaster F. Archibald Farrell, disclosed that a survey had been taken of the borough and sent to Washington. On the basis of the report a post office official had described Allendale's chances for home delivery as "very favorable."

Cautioning against over optimism, Postmaster Farrell said that he does not know when and if final approval will be granted.

"It's all up to Washington at this point," he said.

At the present time about two-thirds of the residents in town get rural mail service. Only homeowners close to the center of town have boxes in the postoffice. They would be the beneficiaries under the new program.

Postmaster Farrell pointed out that giving free mail delivery to residents who live in the outlying area of the borough discriminates against the citizens who live close to town who have to pay $2.40 a year for their boxes.

"It will be a good thing for the town," said Postmaster Farrell. Most people who come into town ask about mail delivery right away, he said and with both Waldwick and Ramsey having home delivery of mail, I think it will be good for us to have it too."

The changeover will mean dropping some 499 boxes now rented at the post office. However, residents who now pick up their mail from the boxes will receive only one delivery of mail a day whereas now they have the advantage of 5 deliveries a day.

The Chamber of Commerce does not anticipate any change in buying habits as a result of the proposed change, because as they point out, most of the people who come to town each day for the mail and shopping

Concrete action was taken by the Chamber of Commerce this week to push their oft repeated proposal to have the borough widen W. Allendale Avenue from the corner of Franklin Turnpike to the business section. This would make the avenue conform to the width of the street in the downtown area.

The Chamber in a formal letter to the Borough Council, recommended that the project be started immediately to take advantage of County construction work soon to be started to alleviate poor drainage at the corner of Franklin Turnpike. If both projects were done simultaneously, the street would only have to be torn up once. This, the Chamber feels, would result in a considerable saving of money for the borough.

The letter states that members are in complete accord with the Borough Engineer's recommendation that the corner of Franklin Turnpike and W. Allendale Avenue be widened to take care of a traffic hazard which now exists on that corner.

Fifteen parents of the players attended the meeting.

REMINDER: TURN AHEAD CLOCKS

Sunday morning a few people will arrive for church an hour late. On Monday a few children will be an hour late for school. Mothers once again must face the problem of when it is light outside. In other words — Daylight Saving Time starts Sunday. Set your clocks ahead one hour on Saturday night.

Wandering Boy, 7 Found Asleep By Volunteers

Werner Maluta, age 7, was found for the second time asleep outdoors late at night Tuesday evening. A search party of 17 men covered the area near his home behind the Wilson residence, 110 E. Crescent Ave., and finally located him sound asleep on a pile of dirt near an excavation dug on the north side of Crescent Avenue near Franklin Turnpike.

Last fall Werner fell asleep under the porch of the Wilson residence and was finally found by police at 1 a.m.

Police report that they received a call from Mrs. George Wilson a near neighbor of Mrs. Maluta at 8:30 p.m. Chief Robert Wilson, Officer Frank Parent and Officer Peter Cauwenberghs combed the area until 9:

30 without success.

Officer Cauwenberghs asked help from the Auxiliary Police under Bernt Spilling and from members of the Chamber of Commerce who were meeting in the firehouse.

Volunteers then spread out over the area surrounding the Wilson home. It was not planned as an organization search which may have been the reason why it was successful, said Stiles Thomas, who found young Werner beside an excavation near the corner of Crescent Avenue and Franklin Turnpike. Mr. Thomas reports that he went over ground which had already been covered, but by luck, his flashlight turned on the sleeping boy who (Please Turn to Page Eight)

PALSY CENTER TOPS DRIVE FOR FUNDS

The 1953 Easter Seal fund-raising campaign for the Cerebral Palsy Center, Ridgewood, has chalked up the largest contributions list on record and though final returns are incomplete, the $50,000 quota has been exceeded. Drive chairmen said today that it may run $1,000 over the goal for an all-time record, and about $13,000 over last year's figure.

Still to be included in the receipts are collections from coin banks which local chairmen are gathering from business places in their communities. The campaign committee is aiming to have a conclusive figure at the end of next week.

Mayor Albert J. Faber and Mrs. Henry A. Baer, co-chairmen of the Easter Seal drive, today lauded 107 workers who represented the county's 70 municipalities as chairmen and assistants. They had the task of placing containers for free-will donations in practically every place of business, and in larger towns, sponsored Lily Days for the sale of miniature paper lilies, a phase of the campaign which received greater patronage than ever before. Contributions sent directly to

John Tackaberry Weds Miss Marilyn Wilson

The marriage of Marilyn Carol Wilson to John Paul Tackaberry was solemnized before an altar banked solid with palms and decorated with white snapdragons and white carnations at the Epiphany Church last Saturday afternoon.

The wedding was a social affair because the bride and groom are both members of families who have lived in Allendale for a long time. Friends and relatives of the participants packed the church for the ceremonies.

The bride, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Wilson of 110 East Crescent Avenue and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Tackaberry of 7 Midwood Avenue.

The Rev. Bayard Hancock officiated at the ceremony. Miss Norma Swing sang "Because" and "O Perfect Love" with organ accompaniment by Miss Helen Harvey.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white Chantilly lace and nylon, styled with illusion neckline and accordion pleated nylon insert in the skirt. Her shoulder length veil was attached to a nylon tulle accordion pleated headpiece and she carried a Colonial bouquet of hyacinths and white snapdragons.

The maid of honor, Miss Joan Ward of Ramsey, wore a blue silk shantung ballerina gown fashioned with V neckline, short sleeves and skirt with accordion pleated inserts. She wore matching mitts and headpiece and carried a Colonial bouquet of violets outlined with pink snapdragons.

Mr. Kenneth Monaghan of Hawthorne, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor and Miss Ruth Roselander of Ramsey was the bridesmaid. Their gowns, accessories and flowers were identical to those of the maid of honor.

John Megnin of Waldwick was the best man and the ushers were Kenneth E. Monaghan of Hawthorne and Stephan Van Houten III of Waldwick.

Mr. and Mrs. Tackaberry left for a trip to the Pocono Mountains. For traveling, the bride chose a blue spring suit with red and white accessories worn with a corsage of white gardenias. Upon their return the young couple will reside at 56 Myrtle Avenue.

Mrs. Tackaberry is a graduate of Ramsey High School and the Hackensack School of Nursing. She is a member of the staff of the Valley Hospital in Ridgewood.

Mr. Tackaberry was graduated from Ramsey High School and from Oglethorpe University. He served with the U. S. Navy for three years and is now associated with Kearfott Company of Little Falls.

WOMEN'S MEDICAL CORPS CELEBRATE SIXTH BIRTHDAY

On Thursday, April 16th, The Women's Medical Specialist Corps, one of the youngest components of the Army Medical Service observed its sixth birthday. While the military age of the Corps may seem youthful, WMSO Officers have traditions of long Army service. For many years prior to the establishment of the Corps in the Regular Army, Dietitians, Physical Therapists and Occupational Therapists were very important members of the Medical Service teams in Army hospitals.

This sixth anniversary finds the Corps suffering from a critical shortage of these specialists. The Korean conflict has imposed greater demands upon the hospital personnel. To help alleviate this critical condition the Army conducts courses in physical therapy, occupational therapy and internships in hospital dietetics. College graduates who fulfill the requirements, both academic and physical, are commissioned prior to the training year.

For information, apply to your Local Recruiting Office or write The Surgeon General, Department of the Army, Washington 25, D. C. Attention: Chief, Personnel Division.

Last year, the cutting committee of the Women's Auxiliary of Hackensack Hospital cut approximately four and one-half miles of material which was then converted into items of wardrobe supply for the hospital shelves.

Industry Can Help Our Tax Bill

Critics of last week's editorial were pretty severe and those who favored it were equally pleased. But possibly it helped to clear the decks for future thinking along this line. What we were mostly interested in was the reaction to our thoughts on industry being welcomed into the borough by the officials.

Most of the readers we spoke to were opposed to such a move as it might lead to Allendale being another Paterson. This is something no one wants and neither do we. When you explain the beautiful buildings industry is putting up and the type of assembly plants that are acceptable, most residents are for it as long as the building is not next door to them.

We are aware of this and that is why we suggest that land along the railroad be made available to suitable industry. With very few exceptions no homes are located near the tracks and very likely never will be. Suitable industry located here certainly would help reduce the tax bill and give employment to those who don't commute.

The Ford motor car company is planning an assembly plant in Mahwah and still another, The Eastman Kodak Company is rumored seeking a location right alongside the proposed plant. While this will bring hundreds into the community the big problem is schools. We are sure, however, that these companies will set up their own school in an effort to attract the type of employees they seek. Possibly that is part of the over all arrangement made with the Township of Mahwah. Large developers all over the country have provided schools, fire and police protection and while such a large undertaking would be too grandiose for Allendale there are small companies that are looking for location alongside a first rate railroad.

For example, there is right now in Allendale a business that sells brushes and various garden tools that has offices located here but the plant is located out of town. Recently a new assembly plant was erected by the company in Mahwah. The owner appeared before a local board to ask "how the people of Allendale felt about such a plant." The reception he was given was anything but cordial, resulting in a plant being built out of town. The building must have cost over $30,000 with another $20,000 put into machinery and equipment. Assessment value runs around $25,000. How many homes could you assess for this amount that would locate alongside of a railroad, add nothing to the school population, no sewage problem, and possibly a slight risk of fire that could easily be handled by our department? We venture to say there is none.

This is one example. There have been others, no doubt more will ask the same question. How do you feel about proper industry? How much longer can we go along with the private homes carrying the entire tax load? We must seek another means for revenue and to our mind the proper industry can and will provide it if given the chance.

PARENTS VISIT TRADE SCHOOL

Approximately 40 parents and friends joined in the visit to the Bergen County Vocational School sponsored by the Eight Town League for Ramsey High on Wednesday evening, April 15th. The tour of the school was made in two separate groups under the guidance of faculty members of the school.

Before starting on the tour which lasted from 8:30 until 10, each group was addressed by Harold A. Weideli, the school's director. He explained the offerings of the school including courses in auto mechanics, carpentry, masonry, comm. cooking and baking, industrial chemistry, machine shop work, beauty culture, painting and electricity and electronics.

The large turnout for the trip was attributed by Mrs. Edward H. Gilson of Wyckoff, president of the Eight Town League, to the work of the members of the executive committee. Mr. Weideli in his introductory remarks stated that the Bergen County Vocational and Technical High School was one of the most talked about vocational schools in the country because of the excellence of its equipment.
