Job Loses First Round In Bout With Borough

One phase of Pat Job's legal action against the Borough Council and two councilmen for alleged injustices suffered at their hands over the matter of rezoning his Crescent Inn has met a rebuff.

Judge Hayden Proctor, in Newark Superior Court, dismissed Mr. Job's suit against Council members Frank McCord and Helen Hanson on the basis that he had stated on "cause for action."

Mr. Job had charged Mr. McCord and Mrs. Hansen with voting in a prejudicial manner on a motion to rezone the tavern. He said they followed resolution opposing the a directive from the Republican Club, which had passed a change.

He had filed suit against the Borough Council and against Mr. McCord and Mrs. Hanson specifically. It was this latter part of the suit which was thrown out of court.

Mr. Job admitted he was not surprised by the ruling and that he had, in fact, expected it. But the seriousness with which he views his complaint was indicated by his statement, that he was prepared to appeal the decision "right up to the Supreme Court if necessary."

It is thought that Mr. Job will first pursue his suit against the Borough Council, since the way is now open to Borough Attorney John Warhol to ask for a summary judgment on the same grounds on which Judge Proctor dismissed the suit against the two council members. This hearing will probably be delayed by the crowded court docket until sometime in the fall.

Mr. Warhol confidently expect the suit against the borough to be dismissed in short order on the basis of the Hanson-McCord ruling.

Only An Opening Shot

But Mr. Job told The Allendale Press he considers this suit only an opening shot in his battle for rezoning of the tavern. It is an attack on the principle of "prejudicial voting," he feels, and he is already

SHEL'NBERGS LEAVE FOR NEW HOME IN PUERTO RICO

Mr. and Mrs. Svend A. Schellenberg have sold their home on W. Crescent Av. and are moving next week to San Juan, Puerto Rico. Accompanying them will be their dog, Fella, a cocker spaniel.

Mr. Schellenberg, who has been General Sales Manager of the American Apothecaries Company, has been elected President of Commonwealth Industries, Inc., in San Juan. This is a drug and allied product importing, exporting and manufacturing house with offices on Ponce de Leon Avenue.

The Schellenbergs hope their friends will call on them whenever they are in Puerto Rico.

planning to bring another suit against the borough on the zoning issue.

Mr. Job's attorney is Ralph Chandless.

Albert Scafuro, attorney for Mr. McCord and Mrs. Hanson, greeted the dismissal ruling by the Newark Court with gratification. It was his motion before Judge Hayden that resulted in the ruling.

"As far as we're concerned," he said, "this means the affair is over and done with."

Mr. McCord and Mrs. Hanson could consider the ruling a vindication of their position and a clear slate on the charges brought by Mr. Job. Both had vehemently denied voting without independent judgment at the time the suit was announced.

Mr. McCord had struck out angrily at the "sniping" which (Please Turn to Page Four)

LOCAL PEOPLE IN SLIGHT ACCIDENT

Two Allendale residents collided in their cars at the corner of Maple St. and W. Allendale Ave. Friday afternoon. The cars were damaged in identical fashion, according to the Police who investigated the accident.

Norman Winters, driving his mother's car (Mrs. Dorothy Winters) collided with the car of Mrs. Lucille Smith, at the wide intersection. Left front fenders, headlights and grill work were damaged on each vehicle to the extent of about $150. No one was injured.

Snyders Celebrate 50th Anniversary

The War Memorial Building was the scene of a large and festive reception for Mr. and Mrs. Herman J. Snyder who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary last Saturday evening.

The party was given in their honor by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick P. Duffy of Maple St., Ramsey, with whom they now make their home. Prior to their moving to Ramsey, the Snyders lived in the residence at the corner of Franklin Turnpike and W. Allendale Ave. which has been remodeled into the Van Houten Real Estate office building.

The Snyders moved to Allendale from the Riverside section of Paterson in 1947.

The couple was married July 25, 1903 at the home of Mr. Snyder's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Snyder, then of Matlock St., Paterson. The late John H. Snyder was the owner of the wood turning plant then located on Paterson

Meyner Visits Here In August

Robert B. Meyner, the Democratic candidate for governor will be in Allendale on Sunday evening, August 23rd, to attend an open-house under the auspices of the Independent Committee for Meyner.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pfister of Franklin Turnpike will be host to the gubernatorial candidate and have extended an open invitation to all residents to come and meet Mr. Meyner.

A committee is being formed at the present time consisting of political independents, Republicans and Democrats to support the campaign of Mr. Meyner in Allendale.

The open house scheduled at Mr. Pfister's home is part of a campaign program which will take the candidate to most of the communities in Bergen County during August. It is reported that Mr. Meyner feels he can better his own chances for election by meeting the people in their home communities and answering their questions personally.

LOCAL BOYS WITH ARMY RESERVES

Pfc. Ralph Gallicchio, 202 Park Avenue, and his brother Pvt. Vito are with 27 other Bergen County army reservists assigned to the 370th Major port, in a two week on-the-job training course being held at the New York Port of Embarkation.

The operation started last Sunday at the New York port, which supplies U. S. troops throughout the world. The unit is commanded by a Bergen County resident, Reserve Col. William C. Otten, Woodcliff Lake, who is in civilian life traffic manager of the Erie Railroad.

The training course is being held by the 370th for the second year. The Unit was organized in 1947 and today is one of the largest Reserve units of its type in the United States.

Home Mail Delivery Is Due In Three Weeks

The daily trip to the Post Office which has been a part of household schedules in Allendale for generations, is about to become a memory.

Postmaster F. Archibald Farrell has announced that probably within the next three weeks all homes in the Borough will receive home mail delivery.

The actual boxes in the Post Office will be moved to another post office to make way for additional room behind the stamp windows, Mr. Farrell said.

Postmaster Farrell, who has long hoped that this expansion of service would come to Allendale, said that within the forthcoming weeks two mail carriers would be hired to put the new service into operation.

In anticipation of the change, Postmaster Farrell has advised all residents in Allendale that it will be necessary for all mail received to bear the house number and street address of the patrons.

Inform Correspondents

He further advised that residents inform correspondents, publishers and friends of their house numbers and street addresses, and ask that these be used in addressing mail to

CHARLES HONIG SEEING EUROPE AS SEAMAN

Charles Honig, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Honig of Powell Road, was home visiting his parents recently between trips to Europe on the U. S. United States. Charles is working aboard the liner this summer and seeing Europe during the brief time in port while the ship makes ready for the passage home.

Last summer Charles, a student at Dartmouth College during the winter, worked aboard a steamer which sailed from here to South America.

DEER TAKES LOOK AT CIVILIZATION, RETURNS TO WOODS

It's a rare day in July when a deer walks across a front lawn in Allendale. But that is what happened Sunday on W. Crescent Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sutherland and family were enjoying Sunday dinner on the porch of their home at 130 W. Crescent Avenue when they spotted a doe standing on the lawn south of their home.

The deer looked as though she might cross Crescent Ave. but a car came along just as she was about to move and frightened her.

As the car passed the deer arched her head, wheeled around and ran back into the woods.

Stanley Wenc, 128 W. Crescent Avenue, was reported to have seen three deer at the end of his driveway earlier this spring, but none had ever come down as close to the street as the one that was seen on Sunday.

Kurdock Sound and Service of Paterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Snyder sang a duet, "Let's Grow Old Together" which they rendered at their 25th anniversary. A solo, "I Love You Truly" was sung by Mr. Snyder's brother, Fred Snyder, and Mrs. Joseph Foley of Short Hills, sang "Oh Promise Me."

The Snyders arrived at the War Memorial Building in a 1908 Franklin car which was loaned and driven for the occasion by Thomas Kenney of Ho-Ho-Kus.

Mrs. Snyder was 67 years old May 16, and Mr. Snyder will be 70 years old November 25. Both are in good health Mr. Snyder, who sang with his brothers in the Snyder Brother's Quartet, was a former employe of the George A. Myers Hardware Co. of Paterson. He returned in 1943.

The couple was the recipients of many gifts, flowers, and cards, commemorating this auspicious occasion.

Street.

The couple has three children, Edwin H. Snyder of Hawthorne Ave., Hawthorne, Mrs. Myrtle Bulwin of Paterson, and Mrs. Bernadette Duffy of Ramsey.

They have seven grandchildren: Edward and Robert Snyder who are in the Navy Air Corps stationed at Floyd Bennett Field, Long Island; William Bulwin who is with the U. S. Navy stationed at Boston Mass.; Michael Bulwin Jr., Mary Bulwin, Mrs. Stanley (Rosalie Bulwin) Dubiel, and Mrs. Robert (Irene) Bulwin Lutz Jr.

They also have three great-grandchildren, Deborah and Brenda Dubiel and Joan Marie Lutz, all of Paterson.

Mrs. Snyder is the former Margaret A. Zachmann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Zachman of Riverside section, Paterson.

A buffet supper for about 130 relatives and friends was served and music for the occasion was furnished by the

ROCKLAND ELECTRIC HARD AT WORK

Sidewalk engineers and crowds of youngsters have been attentive bystanders to the crew of tree trimmers from Rockland Electric working in the Borough.

Crowds gather each day, not only to watch the limbs fall, but to see the disposal truck grind the branches into sawdust.

The trimming is a fast operation the way the crew does it. The Borough should be better protected against power failure due to broken trees once the job is complete. The Borough Council authorized this work to be done following a report from the Mayor's committee appointed to investigate Rockland Electric's service to the Borough.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Christopher, Franklin Turnpike, have returned from a three-week trip to the National Parks and the West Coast.

RAMSEY RAISES TUITION FOR H. S.

Tuition costs during the 1953-54 school year for the seven districts sending pupils to Ramsey High School will be hiked from last year's $305 to $327.80 this year, the school board's finance chairman, Joseph M. Melick announced Tuesday night. The figures will stand until the State School Board approves or revises them.

Melick also reported a tuition rate of $234 will apply for out-of-town pupils attending local elementary schools during the coming year.

Angels Of Mercy

Since last week that kindly man in white, our doctor has been trying to get a room in the hospital for our very sick loved one, but to no avail.

Each time the telephone rings we earnestly hope we have gained admission into the sanctuary of the Hospital where we could hope for some release from pain and obtain comforting and correct care.

One does not seek a hospital. One does not enjoy a stay there. But it is a "must" as we all learn sooner or later.

The problem at the bottom of it all is that there is a shortage of nurses. Why should a well equipped hospital be forced to close off urgently needed space because of lack of help? Is it the working hours, the salary, or perhaps the high tuition and the years of study that discourages our young people.

Surely the highly regarded Nursing profession should be so endowed that we as a great and powerful nation, should never be lacking in this respect.

Or does the greatest fault lie with us as parents? Have we failed to direct our young in the doing of good? What greater calling can there be then that of service to our fellow man? Both the nursing profession and the teaching profession have long suffered a drought.

I, for one would dread thinking that we have reached a standard of living where the core of all is capital gain; that unless we ride on the crest of the wave we're nobody. I want to believe that following in the footsteps of the greatest healer and teacher of all time, our Saviour, was and always will be on the greatest honor.

P.S. — We have at long last obtained a room in the Valley Hospital - perhaps the waiting was a bit too long, but Pop is putting up a good fight and now we can only wait and pray even harder.

Much thanks to our grand and capable ambulance corps. Their sympathetic and efficient care in transporting Jim is most sincerely appreciated by our entire family.

ALLENDALE WINNERS ARE REALLY LOSERS

Somebody slipped in the Ramapo Little League public relations department recently and as a result officials last week retracted their announcement that Allendale had clinched the pennant. Still a contender was "dark horse" Ho-Ho-Kus which can force a tie.

The league's statement follows: "As a result of team managers failing to properly report box scores to the league secretary, it was erroneously announced to the press last week that Allendale had clinched the pennant. Ho-Ho-Kus still has a chance to finish in a tie with Allendale and force a playoff."

"Ho-Ho-Kus has lost 5 games while Allendale has dropped 4. The latter has a game remaining with Mahwah and should the latter win, and Ho-Ho-Kus come out on top in three remaining games, the loop standings will show both aggregations with 15 victories and 5 defeats."

Recently at Allendale, the Ho-Ho-Kusites playing with a patched up lineup, stayed in first spot contention when Dave Duffield out-pitched Jim Walsh and the Ho-Ho-Kus nine emerged winner, 4-1.

JOHN M. V. KOOLE TO ENTER CALVIN C'EGE AWARDED SCHOLARSHIP

John Miller V. Koole son of Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Koole of 105 Hillside Avenue, Allendale, has been notified that he is a recipient of a freshman scholarship to Calvin College in Grand Rapids, Mich.

This is added to a long list of honors won by John, who was graduated in June from Ramsey High School. He was chosen by the Scholarship Board of the National Association of Secondary School Principals for their certificate of merit, after competing with 538,667 high school seniors throughout the country. John was one of 54 to receive the high award.

He also received the scholarship award presented by the Allendale PTA; the Erwin B. Lund Memorial Mathematics prize; the Ramsey Woman's Club science award and tied with Jacolyn Mott for the French Award presented by the Ramsey Woman's Club.

NEW WHITE LINES

The Bergen County Road Department crew painted white center lines on Myrtle Avenue and W. Allendale Av. from the Sweet Shop to the intersection at Franklin Turnpike Tuesday morning. This was a service granted to the borough free of charge. Neither Myrtle Avenue on W. Allendale Ave. are designated as borough roads.

"WITNESS ADJOURN"

The nucleus of a New World Society manifested itself Sunday when 165,829 persons assembled at Yankee Stadium, its overflow tents, and at "Trailer City", New Market, N. J. to hear the highlight discourse of the "New World Society Assembly" of Jehovah's Witnesses, "After Armageddon — God's New World."

The Allendale Congregation was represented by 128 persons at the eight-day assembly which closed Sunday. Earlier in the week on Wednesday the local witnesses were present for a mass baptism service at which 4,640 were immersed. Joseph Bronson of 414 S. Broad St., Ridgewood, Silvanus B. and Dorothy E. Downing of Allendale; Mrs. M. Schroeder of Allendale; Louis and Eric Lombardi of Eder Ave., Wyckoff; Elsie Latus of Oakland; and Mrs. Romanoski of Spring Valley, N. Y. were baptized at this ceremony.

Mr. L. A. Miller, the presiding minister of the Allendale Congregation said, at the conclusion of the assembly, "This has been one of the most wonderful events of my life. The people we associated with at the assembly were different. When it became necessary at times to wait in line to eat, to listen to sessions in the rain, or to drive through the heavy traffic near the Stadium, never was a cross word said or were spirits dampened. All demonstrated true brotherly love which makes possible the world-wide unity of our organization. Really this was a foretaste of the conditions our people look forward to when God's New World brings perfection to earth and mankind."

Delivery service marks the end of a major effort on the part of Post Office officials to give increased service to the borough. More than once, the post office in Allendale has been denied this additional service because of low population and scattered homes in the borough. Now, however, the town has grown to adequately meet the requirements necessary for home delivery.
With most of the boroughs that surround Allendale already enjoying mail delivery to homes, it was inevitable that it should come to Allendale. It is with considerable gratification, therefore that the Post Office is able to announce this change.
